International Dinner Series 2006 announced at UMC

By Rae French on Monday, February 13, 2006

Crookston, MN—The University of Minnesota Crookston (UMC) will host a series of international dinners beginning March 6. The location for the dinner series is Bede Ballroom in the Student Center beginning at 6:00 p.m. each evening. Dates for the dinners and featured countries are as follows:

Monday, March 6 will feature Korea. Students will prepare Korean Food and will serve it family style at your tables. You will have the opportunity to meet UMC's English as Second Language (ESL) students.

Monday, March 20 will feature Ivory Coast. Students from the Ivory Coast will share an evening of authentic food and great conversation.

Monday, March 27 will feature Russia. Nikolay Seregin is a Russian student majoring in natural resources. He will share information about his culture, food, and the Green Span of Russia.

Wednesday, April 5 will feature an international dinner: The International/Multicultural Club invite you to an evening of international food, music, dancing, karate demonstrations, and much more.

Students from the UMC Music Department will provide entertainment.

Adult tickets are $10.00 for each evening Dinner or $35.00 for the entire series. Student tickets are high school and under are $8.00 or $30.00 for the entire series.

To reserve a space please Contact Rae French at 281-8339 or her cell at 289-0444 or e-mail rhoew@umn.edu. Spaces are limited so RSVP as soon as possible. The last day to reserve tickets is the Friday before each dinner by 4:30 p.m.
